//Jehunuhura Island Picnic

Kanuhura has its own desert island nearby where you can enjoy casual picnic lunch during the day and private island dinner with sand between your toes. Across a 300 m shallow lagoon channel, just a five-minute boat ride from Kanuhura, lays the resort's neighboring uninhabited islet of Jehunuhura. A pristine powder-fine sand beach and a small manicured 'jungle' interior give a true Robinson Crusoe feel to this little piece of paradise. This island offers our guests to enjoy a real back-to-the-nature experience. Picnic lunches can be arranged for you under the shade of a coconut palm to indulge in the exclusive surroundings of this private retreat. Available daily upon request.

//Jehunuhura Private Romantic Dinner

When the sun sets, this Treasure Island becomes a desirable location for private parties, delectable dinners or romantic interludes. Our Team members can create the ultimate magical occasion with barbecues on the beach for a small group of friends, or an intimate candle-lit evening for a star-strayed couple.

For private dinners, evening starts at sundown when a traditional Maldivian dingy boat comes to pick you up either from the terrace or from the beach in front of your villa to Jehunuhura Island. Enjoy a truly Robinson Crusoe style barbecue dinner with private chef and waiter. Dine under the stars at a private beachside table dressed in white linen, set with fine china and glass, with bare feet in the powder fine sand and the sound of the Indian Ocean waves gently lapping at the edge of the beach. Feast on a gourmet menu exclusively prepared by our chefs and served by your own private waiter, accompanied by Champagne or own choice of international wines.

Available daily upon request, limited to 1 booking per day.
