North Island's Favourites

Pol Roger Pure	NV	225
This is a 'natural' Champagne. No sugar has been added which creates a pure and natural Champagne which is the perfect companion to shellfish and sashimi. Its finesse and subtlety goes hand in hand with delicate food from the sea rather than mask its taste.
Gewurztraminer, Cuvée Théo, Domaine Weinbach, Alsace	2008	80
With wonderful aromas of rose, gilly-flower, jasmine, spices and crystallized citrus fruit, this fine gewurztraminer is sumptuous as an apéritif, with creole food, smoked salmon, scallops or even with cheese, especially with French cheeses such as Roquefort. It is also perfect with foie gras.
Chardonnay, Hamilton Russell Vineyards Estate	2009	90
A perfect marriage between Old World and New World exists in this Chardonnay from cool climate Walker Bay in South Africa. It is very Burgundian in style, with excellent balance and acidity, yet also manages to incorporate some fresh fruit. Full, round, complex, nutty - a fantastic wine to have with roast pork or rich creamy dishes.
Domaine Ott, Côtes de Provence, Château de Selle	2009	80
This is pure sun in a glass and considered by many as the best rosé wine in the world. With aromas of grapefruit, apricots and a hint of juniper, this is the perfect accompaniment to tapas, mediterranean food, scallops and smoked salmon.
Pinot Noir, Galpin Peak, Bouchard Finlayson	2005/06	90
The 'noble grape' is what connoisseurs say about Pinot Noir. Bouchard makes a fine, elegant Pinot that has exuberant fruit and a long lasting palate. Perfect with simply a beef filet or a truffle scented risotto.
Pinot Noir, Pyramid Valley, Eaton Family	2004	75
Again, a very soft and delicate wine with earthy and spicy notes on the palate. Its very strong fruit clearly defines it as a New Zealand wine. Beautiful with lamb cutlets on the barbecue.
Almaviva, Baron Philippe de Rothschild, Maipo Valley	2004	130
A real blockbuster that presents complexity and structure with good tannins, notes of rich and ripe fruits with a great finish. It is also a very beautiful bottle. Simply perfect with grilled meat.
Vin de Constance, Klein Constantia	2000	125
A very elegant sweet wine with rich flavours of peach and dried apricots. It is viscous and rich but not sickly. It is great after dinner if you are too full to have dessert. One of the best sweet wines in the world.
